He helps his parents in the farm to earn extra money in order to buy things he needs in school.
19	ALMA DIABORDO 	Birth date: February 18, 2003  Gender: Female  Father: Alfonso Diabordo  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Perla Diabordo  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Cebuano  Level: Grade V Alma is one of the six siblings. The family lived formerly in the mountainside of Puasinda, Kidapawan. The meager resources of the family are all spent in the medication of the father who has a kidney malfunction, now bedridden and so they decided to transfer in Dugong, Mlang. Among the six children, Alma is the only one enrolled in school. When she became recipient of Wimler scholarship, her brother was also able to enroll. The educational assistance is a big support the mother said. Alma helps her mother during weekends in working in the rice fields, tending vegetables and does some laundry work to earn some money to buy food.

20	YAN DIMAPINIG 	Birth date: August 20, 2000  Gender: Male  Father: Ramon Dimapinig  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Dedsa Dimapinig  Occupation: Farmer  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V Yan comes from a poor family. He walks more than a kilometer everyday to go to school. His father is a farmer/tenant and his mother works as a laborer during harvest season. Even though both parents are working, the income is still very small and not even enough to meet the needs of the children. There are times that he will be absent because is forced to help his parents to earn an extra amount for the family. The absences affect his performance in school.
21	JHOMARI FLORIDA 	Birth date: June 13, 2001  Gender: Male  Father: Joel Florida  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Shermalene Florida  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Ilonggo  Level: Grade VI Jhomari is one of the three children. He lives with his grandparents in Dugong because of financial reasons and the school was too far from their home in Davao where the family presently lives. His parents decided to transfer him here. Sometimes his parents send some amount for his needs but not enough to support him.
22	MONIR GANGGAY 	Birth date: September 6, 1999  Gender: Male  Father: Imbel Ganggay  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Clang Ganggay  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindaonan  Level: Grade V Monir is the second child among the six children. Three of them are in grade school. His parents are both laborers. Their income is not enough to meet the family needs. So there are times that he has to be absent in school to help in the farm and earn extra amount. Sometimes they don't have food to eat. In spite of this, he was able to maintain his grade level last year. Now that he was recommended to be a scholar he promised to level up his performance in school.

23	ALI K. GIOMLA 	Birth date: June 6, 1999  Gender: Male  Father: Saidona Giomla  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Kaminsa Giomla  Occupation: small vendor  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindaoanoan  Level: Grade V Ali is the youngest among the six siblings. Most of his brothers and sisters have their own family already but life is also difficult for them that they could not help their own younger brother. Ali and his parents live in a small hut. The lot where their house is located is not their own. His father is a tenant of a small area of farm and gets 10% share from the land owner every harvest season (every three-four months). His mother has a small store in their house and sometimes she sells vegetables or fruits in the market. There are times that Ali is absent from the class because he helps his mother in sell vegetables in the market.
24	ASMAIRA T. GIOMLA 	Birth date: July 24, 2003  Gender: Female  Father: Eddie Giomla  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Bainor Giomla  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V Shy girl yet a friendly classmate and a good friend is the best way to describe Asmaira. Her parents depend only on available farm works during planting and harvesting seasons. They also work in other adjacent barangays to earn a living. Sometimes Asmaira has to miss classes to take care of her small brother so that her parents can go to work to augment their meager income.
25	MIRANDA KADATUAN 	Birth date: February 14, 2000  Gender: Female  Father: Mohamad Kadatuan  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Saida Kadatuan  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V Miranda and her sister who is now in Grade four were separated from their family and live with their aunt in Dugong. The six other children live with their parents. Financial problem which the family grapples everyday and the distance from home to school in Pikit, North Cotabato where their family lives are the main reasons why they prefer to stay in Dugong to continue with their education. Although their aunt is also financially hard up, she accepted the responsibility to become the second

		mother of her nieces.
26	ALKUBAPA T. KANAPIA 	Birth date: November 28, 2001  Gender: Male  Father: Eddie Kanapia  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Rhama Kanapia  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V A consistent honor pupil even if their home is far from the school site. He always comes to school on time. The family depends on their farm but it is not enough to meet the needs of all of the six children and to send them to school. He is happy when he is included in the list of scholars of WIMLER so he can now concentrate on his studies because the basic needs in school are already provided.
27	VINA K. KANAPIA 	Birth date: October 18, 2000  Gender: Female  Father: Dima Kanapia  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Jamila Kanapia  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V The family has no farm, so they just depend on planting season and harvest time where they can do seasonal work. They live far from the school. She is a diligent pupil who loves to go to school even sometimes she has no food to eat for lunch. She goes to school without hesitation because she wants to get good grades and does not like to be absent from her class.
28	NORHATA KASIM 	Birth date: July 15, 2001  Gender: Female  Father: Dela Kasim  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Keno Kasim  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V The far distance from the house to the school does not hinder Norhata to go to school regularly and to come on time. The daily life for the family is very hard. She likes to go to school because someday she wants to help her family to have a better life. Her parents have no permanent farm to tend. They only depend during planting season and harvest period to earn more for the family.

29	SARIPA T. LUBAGAN 	Birth date: September 2, 2002  Gender: Female  Father: Lamalan Lubagan  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Maimona Lubagan  Occupation: Farmer  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V Saripa's family is very poor. Her parents are both laborers in the farm. Although both are working, the income is not enough to meet all the basic needs of the family. They constantly experience difficulties in taking care of the kids. Food is inadequate and they lack the means to send their children to school. The mother is already trying her best and does everything she can do to send her children to school.
30	MARK ANDRE LUSTRE 	Birth date: November 8, 2002  Gender: Male  Father: Andy Lustre (Deceased)  Occupation:  Mother: Fely Lustre  Occupation: Farming  Ethnic Affiliation:  Level: Grade V Andy belongs to a poor family. He was not able to finish his studies last year because he stopped halfway of the school year because he has work as a helper in a store to help his family. He and his other siblings are raised by their mother who is a widow. His mother works during planting and harvest season. The income that she earns is not sufficient for the family. This is one reason why Roland has to excuse himself from time to time in his class to work and help his mother earn extra amount for their allowance and to be able to go to school.
33	JOHN PAUL PAROJINOG 	Birth date: October 18, 2001  Gender: Male  Father: Jeronimo Parojinog  Occupation: Welder  Mother: Jocelyn Parojinog  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Ilonggo  Level: Grade V John Paul is the second child among the four children in the family, all boys. His father left their home to find work in Manila but still cannot sustain his family with the money he sends home. The brothers help each other and their mother in tending animals so that when they are ready to sell, they can have an extra income. John Paul strives his best to go to school although sometimes he comes late because he has to help his brothers first in cleaning the small piggery and other household chores.
34	RIZZY PLAZA 	Birth date: December 17, 2000  Gender: Female  Father: Merlito Plaza  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Arlene Plaza  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Ilonggo  Level: Grade V Rizzy is the youngest of the six children in the family. Being a seasonal worker, his father can only expect his meager income after the harvest season (after 3-4 months). During lean months where there are no works, they do other menial jobs in other places of the town. Due to poverty her brothers and sisters have to stop going to school. Although a transferee, Rizzy excels in her academic performance. She is so inspired now to go to school after being chosen as one of the WIMLER scholars which provided her with the things she needs in

		school which her parents could not afford to buy.
35	NARIYA SALIC 	Birth date: April 8, 2000  Gender: Female  Father: Kuyag Salic  Occupation: Farmer  Mother: Limbayan Salic  Occupation: Housekeeper  Ethnic Affiliation: Maguindanaoan  Level: Grade V Nariya loves to go to school although her family constantly grapples with hard life at home. She wants to study and hopes someday she will be able graduate in college and be able to help her family to have a better life. The teacher informs that she notices Nariya is a bit ashamed that she has only rice no viand for lunch or no money for recess. Their home is too far from the school yet she wakes up early in the morning and walks fast because she does not want to be late.
