At the age of 16, he is kuya (elder brother) and president of the class. He excels from first grading to fourth grading as the class first honors. He is also a STEP competitor in tool box making. He won first place in the district level competition. He graduated with the average of 87.6 with honors Alvin graduated this year and fortunately he found a sponsor for him. Alvin as High School Student: Alvin did well in his class as first year student thanks to the support of A. Flugel in the Netherlands. When we met Alvin and his mother last February, they really asked for further

		assistance. He is very motivated and considering his age (19), he is actually four years behind. He stopped schooling when he was in elementary because of lack of funds. Alvin is the third among the 7 children. At age 18, he should be a 2nd year college but because of poverty Alvin finds difficulty to continue with his studies. A number of times he dropped out of school but his parents did not lost hope to encourage Alvin to return to school. They always told him that the only way to get out of poverty is to have an education. Because of this, Alvin was motivated to go back to school despite his age. It was in the year 2010 when WIMLER extended help to poor deserving pupils of Mlang Pilot Elementary School. This was the time that Alvin was identified as one of the recipients of the scholarship assistance. Armed with strong determination to finish with his studies, Alvin worked hard and landed as one of the topnotchers in his class. Today Alvin is enjoying the second year of his education being one of the high school scholars of WIMLER School Performance 2012-2013  Grade Level      Grade 8  Age:                19 years old  Gen. RANEL VENTURA, JR.

Sponsor: Efrain Jimenez, Mexico

Birth date: April 4,1999
Gender: Male
Father: Ranel Ventura, Sr.
Occupation: Unemployed
Mother: Sheryl Ventura
Occupation: Part-time marketing officer of the MPES Poultry Project
Ethnic Affiliation: Ilonggo
Level: First Year High School

Ranel is the second among the 5 siblings. His mother has no stable job except accepting laundry work (laundrywoman) every weekend. His father is a former security guard in a banana plantation but was discharged because he accidentally shot and killed his fellow guard. Today his father is locked up in jail serving his sentence. Ranel's mother is the only one earning for the family, when Mlang Pilot ES is looking for a volunteer to serve as marketing in charge of the poultry project, Ranel's mother never hesitated to volunteer herself. She now markets the egg to different stores in Mlang. The project pays her a small compensation in the amount of Ph 2,000/monthly. The educational support will surely support Ranel and her mother.
